IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear departed mother, daughter and sister, Mary Barney Gehrike, who departed this life September 28, 1918: Mary is gone, but still there lingers A fond memory in each heart. We still miss her, O so sadly As from us we drift apart. Jesus called her and she answered To his everlasting call. Earth is past, her gain is heaven. Asleep in Jesus, that is all. Margaret and Dorothy Gehrike, Mr. and Mrs. John Barney, M. and Mrs. James Barney. 9-29

IN MEMORIAM In memory of our dear mother, Anna Green, who left us four years ago today, September 29, 1916: The leaves of the autumn were falling When angels one day took you away. Mother we miss your loving smile, Seems to us we miss you all the while But we shall think of you still the same we say. You are not dead, you are just away. Your Husband and Children. 9-29

IN MEMORIAM Mrs. Caroline Eggbrecht died four years ago today, September 29, 1916: Four years ago dear mother, you left us.

How we miss you Mother dear, As we drop a silent tear, More and more each day we grieve, She lives where none do mourn, and weep. And really does her body sleep, She suffered pain and grief below, She needed her now from all woe. From her loving Husband and Children, Albert Eggbrecht and children. 9-29

GOODMAN'S

Of Gary, 645-635 Broadway

Cut Price Sale==Down Go the Prices!

Sweeping reductions in every department of this big store. Henry Ford has nothing on Goodman's. Four weeks ago before a single reduction had been made by any manufacturer or jobber in this broad land, Goodmans startled the mercantile world of Northern Indiana with a Cotton Goods Sale at prices that were little short of revolutionary.

Beginning Thursday, September 30

Goodman's again strike a blow at the Hi Cost with a sale at prices that absolutely eliminate all profit. We have too many goods.

We Are $100,000 Overstocked

And must realize at once to meet our maturing obligations.

The First Loss is the Best Loss

We bow to the inevitable and accept it. The fall season is here, buy now at prices that are less than those named by manufacturers for next spring.
